COFFEE

MARSHALL & BROWN

Jamaica Blue Mountain coffee is one of the most sought-after coffees in the world. Climbing 7,402 feet above sea level, stands the majestic Blue Mountain Peak, which is the highest point in Jamaica, and one of the highest in the Caribbean.

Blue Mountain coffee plants, are grown at altitudes of 900-2350 metres. The irreplaceable climate coupled with lush vegetation, provides the Blue Mountains with a unique atmospheric condition. In this environment, nitrogen and phosphorus-rich volcanic soils, high-levels of rainfall, ideal drainage, unique screening and chillier temperatures of the island's misty cloud coverage, all merge to produce a distinct world renowned coffee, which has mild, subtle nutty undertones with a delightful balance of aroma, signature sweet aftertaste and complexity of flavours.

THE KINGSTON HAMPER

THE CARIBBEAN HAMPER

“I fondly remember trips with my mother to Linstead Market in Spanish town Jamaica. It was always the exotic colourful spices that first excited me as a little girl.

The lovely aromas, hessian sacks filled with an array of spices: bay leaves, cinnamon, cloves, escallion, ginger, mace, allspice, saffron, thyme, turmeric, scotch bonnet peppers and vanilla. These visions that have become engraved in my memory and allowed me to share these wonderful recipes with you”.
